GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALES

ExxonMobil Petroleum & Chemical BV* (hereafter referred to as "Seller")

1. Agreement(s) as used herein shall mean any order confirmation issued by Seller or any other contractual arrangement executed between Seller and Buyer. Unless otherwise agreed in a written agreement executed between Seller and Buyer, these general terms and conditions shall apply to and form part of all Agreements. The Agreement constitutes the complete and entire understanding and agreement between Seller and Buyer. No other general terms and conditions will be part of the Agreement. Deviations from the Agreement, including these general terms and conditions, shall be valid only if expressly agreed in writing by the Parties. In the event of a conflict between these general terms and conditions and the terms of a Seller order confirmation, the latter shall prevail. Parties acknowledge that they were provided with enough time and opportunity to study and negotiate the Agreement and received all information for the execution of the Agreement.

2. Title to the Product shall transfer from Seller to Buyer simultaneously with the transfer of risks as per Incoterms.

For CFR/CIF/FOB/FCA/CPT delivery of bulk Product, risk shall transfer to Buyer as Product passes the connection between the delivery installation and the truck, train or vessel/barge's intake point at the loading location. For CFR/CIF/FOB/FCA/CPT delivery of packaged Product, risk shall transfer to Buyer at the point at which the Product first enters the truck or train or passes the vessel/barge's rail.

For DAP/DDP delivery of Product: risk shall transfer to Buyer as the truck or train passes the property line at the named place of destination respectively when the vessel/barge arrives in berth at the named place of destination. Arrival in berth shall mean the completion of mooring of vessel/barge when discharging at a respective terminal, vessel/barge being all fast when discharging alongside a berth, or vessel/barge being all fast alongside the first discharging barge, lighter or other vessel.

All references to Incoterms shall mean ICC Incoterms 2020. If Buyer is requesting a different delivery modality or quantity than the standard delivery and Seller incurs additional costs as a result of such request, Seller may apply a surcharge to cover such additional costs.

Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement, for Products shipped by or on behalf of Seller from the US, title and risk shall pass to Buyer at the first point at which the delivering vessel crosses the outer boundary of the US Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ). The EEZ extends 200 nautical miles beyond the coastal baseline defined in the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea or as such term is used in the said Convention.

Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement, for Products supplied hereunder which are sourced and shipped from the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, title to Product and risk of loss of or damage to Product shall pass to Buyer at the first point at which the delivering vessel has crossed the outer boundary of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia's Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ). The EEZ has the meaning attributed to it in the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea.

3. Seller will use reasonable efforts to meet the planned delivery date which shall be deemed to be only approximate.

4. If Buyer is responsible for the transport of Products, Buyer shall ensure that the means of transport is clean and dry, suitable for loading and carrying the Products, and complies with the safety standards of Seller and with the legal standards for such means of transport. In case of non- or incomplete compliance with the above requirements, Seller will be entitled not to load or cause to load this means of transportation, without any obligation to compensation. Buyer assumes full responsibility for use and condition of railcars, trucks, barges while in Buyer's or Buyer's representative's possession and agrees to (a) compensate Seller for loss or damage to Seller's property, and (b) indemnify and hold Seller harmless from any loss or damage to property other than Sellers' and from any injuries to persons relating in any way to the use of such railcar(s), truck(s) and barge(s) while such are in Buyer's or Buyer's representative's possession.

5. If delivery takes place on reusable pallets or crates (regardless of whether they are property of Seller), Buyer will maintain these pallets or crates in good condition and make them available on request for collection by or on behalf of Seller.

6. Seller's determination of quantity and quality shall be binding for both Parties save for manifest error and/or fraud. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Buyer has the right to have a representative present at said determination, at his own cost.

7. Products shall be supplied by Seller at the price valid on the planned delivery date.

8. Prices are exclusive of taxes (such as VAT), duties or other governmental charges. In addition to the price of the Product, Seller shall have the right to charge any taxes, duties or other governmental charges that now or in the future may be levied, in connection with the manufacture, sale, transportation, storage, handling, delivery, use, possession of or disposal of the Product or raw materials used in it. VAT and excise tax exemptions granted on request of Buyer in accordance with legislation or administrative regulations imposed by any lawful authority, shall be the exclusive responsibility of Buyer who shall indemnify Seller in respect of any VAT or excise Tax liabilities arising therefrom.

9. Seller will invoice Buyer and Buyer will pay the invoice in the currency stated on the invoice, without any discount, deduction, price reduction or set off, so that Seller's designated bank account is credited with the full invoiced amount within 30 days from the invoice date.

10. Failure by Buyer to pay on the due date shall make all sums owing by Buyer to Seller on any account whatsoever immediately and automatically due and payable, without prejudice to Seller's right to charge automatically and without giving any notice (1) a late payment interest rate equal to the statutory interest rate defined in Belgian legislation on combating late payment in commercial transactions or, for deliveries in France, three times the French legal interest rate and (2) a fixed sum of 40 EUR for recovery costs (without prejudice to the right to charge any recovery costs exceeding that fixed sum).

11. Each Party and any of its Affiliates (as herein defined) may at any time without giving notice to or making demand upon its counterparty, set off and apply any and all sums at any time owing by the Party and/or by any of its Affiliates to its counterparty or any of its counterparty's Affiliates, against any and all sums owing by the Party or any of its Affiliates to its counterparty and/or to any of its counterparty's Affiliates. An Affiliate is any company or other legal entity of which Exxon Mobil Corporation or Buyer now or hereinafter owns and controls, directly or indirectly fifty per cent (50%) or more of the voting stock or other evidence of equity.

12. In any of the following circumstances, Seller shall have, in addition to any other rights and remedies available to it under the Agreement or applicable law, the right to suspend deliveries if:

- Buyer does not comply with the agreed payment terms;
- Buyer's creditworthiness is downgraded by an independent and reputable credit rating agency;
- Buyer enters insolvency proceedings as defined in EU Regulation No. 2015/848 on insolvency proceedings, or similar proceedings in jurisdictions not covered by said regulation;
- The credit limit assigned to Buyer from time to time pursuant to Seller's credit policy is exceeded (in which case Seller's right to suspend deliveries shall be limited to the extent the delivery exceeds the credit limit);
- Creditor or other third party seizes or attaches any assets, rights or property of Buyer;
- Buyer does not provide requested payment security in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement, or when payment security provided by Buyer to Seller expires, or is voided or annulled; or
- In any other circumstances where based on objective criteria, Seller has concluded that Buyer's creditworthiness is impaired.

In such cases, Seller may make the resumption of supplies dependent upon Buyer complying with amended payment or credit terms (including payment in advance of delivery) or Buyer providing payment security or additional payment security in a form and amount acceptable to the Seller, including a Letter of Credit or Bank Guarantee issued by a bank acceptable to the Seller.

Seller reserves the right to amend credit limits and payment terms from time to time based on Seller's credit policy, mainly dependent on volumes purchased by Buyer (and factors associated therewith) or when the Buyer's financial situation deteriorates.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, if a Party becomes subject to a procedure for moratorium, dissolution or bankruptcy or a trustee or a receiver will be appointed, the other Party has the right to terminate or suspend this Agreement with immediate effect without the need to proceed to Court.

13. Health and safety information relating to handling and use of Products are in the Safety Data Sheets (SDS) that Seller has sent or will send to Buyer. Buyer shall notify Seller if Buyer has not received such information by the delivery date. Seller will assume that Buyer has received the necessary information absent notification from Buyer. Buyer shall provide such health and safety information to anyone including without limitation its employees, contractors, agents or customers who may be exposed to the Product. Buyer warrants that it possesses the necessary expertise for handling Products of the type being supplied hereunder and that it will take the steps necessary to review and understand that information contained on the SDS for each Product it purchases. While the SDS is being supplied in good faith, no guarantee is made as to the accuracy or completeness of any data or statements contained therein. Such data and statements are offered only for Buyer's and its users' and customers' considerations, investigation and verification.

14. Seller gives no guarantees or warranties, express or implied, as to the quality, merchantability, fitness for purpose or suitability of the Products except that the Product sold pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall meet the Seller's relevant standard specification in force at the time of loading or such other specification or requirement which may be explicitly agreed in writing between the Parties.

Without limiting the foregoing, Seller does not recommend nor endorse the use of Product(s) in any medical application and specifically disclaims any representation or warranty, express or implied, of suitability or fitness for use, or otherwise with respect to Product(s)' use in any medical application. Buyer represents and warrants that no Product(s) purchased hereunder will be used in or resold into any commercial or developmental manner in connection with medical applications without Seller's prior express written acknowledgement. Further, Buyer agrees that it will make no representations, express or implied, to any person to the effect that Seller recommends or endorses the use of Product(s) purchased hereunder in any medical application.

Buyer shall inspect Products delivered hereunder for damage, defect or shortage upon receipt and provide Seller notice of any such damage, defect, or shortage upon receipt. Claims relating to damage, defect, shortage or non-delivery ("Product Claims") are waived unless made in writing within 30 days from date of (non-) delivery. Claims other than Product Claims and demurrage claims are waived unless made in writing within 6 months from the date of the cause to which they relate. Tort liability against the Seller, Seller's Affiliates, and Seller's and/or Seller's Affiliates' directors, officers, employees or agents, is expressly excluded to the extent permitted by law. Notwithstanding the above, Seller's maximum liability for all claims for any reason is the sales price of the Product involved and Seller shall not be liable for indirect or consequential damage. Buyer shall indemnify and hold Seller harmless in respect of all claims for which Seller is not liable.

15. Seller makes no representation or warranty of any kind, express or implied, that the Products sold hereunder, or the use of such Products, or articles made therefrom, either alone or in conjunction with other materials, will not infringe any patent or trademark rights. Buyer agrees that it will promptly notify Seller of any claim or suit involving Buyer in which patent or trademark infringement is alleged with respect to the Products sold hereunder, and that Buyer will permit Seller, at its option and expense, to control completely the defense or settlement of any such allegation of infringement.

Neither Party shall, without the prior written consent of the other Party, use the name or any trade name or registered trademark of such other Party or any of such other Party's Affiliate.

16. Neither Party shall be liable for any delay in performance or non-performance (except for payment obligations) in whole or in part caused by circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the Party affected including but not limited to, acts of God, fire, flood, war, terrorist activity, or the threat of one of these events, criminal acts or sabotage, diminishment or failure of power, telecommunications, data systems or networks, accident, explosion, equipment breakdowns, labor disputes, shortage or inability to obtain energy, utilities, equipment, transportation, the Product, or the feedstock from which the Product is directly or indirectly derived; or good faith compliance with any regulation, direction or request (whether ultimately determined to be valid or invalid) made by governmental authority or any person or persons purporting to act for such an authority.

Notwithstanding any other notice requirement in this Agreement actual notice (e.g., phone to be confirmed in writing as soon as possible, email, letter) to a counterparty of a delay or failure described in this provision will constitute effective notice for purposes of this provision.

"Product Shortage" means any situation where, for any reason, including any event listed above, supplies of Products (or of the feedstock from which Products are directly or indirectly derived) from any of Seller's then existing sources of supply (including supplies manufactured at Seller's plants) are curtailed, cut off, or otherwise inadequate to meet Seller's own requirements and its obligations towards its customers (including Seller's Affiliates).

In cases of Product Shortage:

- Seller shall have the right, during such Product Shortage, to apportion fairly available Products among its own captive use (if any) and its categories of customers (including Seller's Affiliates), such as customers under contract or not and branded or unbranded customers;

- Seller may, based upon such fair apportionment, delay the delivery, reduce delivered quantities or cancel the delivery of Products to Buyer (including in respect of accepted purchase orders). Seller will inform Buyer of such delay, reduction or cancellation. Seller shall not be obliged to make up deliveries cancelled or reduced under this article 16.

In cases of Product Shortage, Seller shall not be obliged to:

- purchase or otherwise obtain alternative supplies of Products deliverable under this Agreement or the feedstock from which the Products are directly or indirectly derived;
- settle labor disputes, run down inventories, adapt or vary its manufacturing plan or process, or to take any other steps to replace the supplies of Products that are curtailed or cut off.

Seller shall not be liable for any failure to perform or delay in performance of its obligations under this Agreement, to the extent such failure is caused by Seller exercising its rights under this article 16.

Neither Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement based on Seller exercising its rights under this article 16.

Nothing in this Agreement is intended to exclude either Party's liability resulting from gross negligence or willful misconduct committed by such Party, its officers, employees or agents.

The Parties waive any right to seek renegotiation, modification, or termination of this Agreement due to changes in circumstances occurring after its conclusion.

17. In case of any material breach, including but not limited to the articles 4, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 14, 16 and 20 of these general terms and conditions, by one of the Parties, the other Party may, without giving prior written notice or without undertaking any recourse to legal proceedings, suspend its further performance, terminate the Agreement or require specific performance by the other Party of the Agreement in whole or in part, all without prejudice to its right to damages for any losses incurred subject to Article 14. Performance in kind is excluded as a remedy for breach under this Agreement.

18. Neither Party may assign this Agreement without the written consent of the other Party save in the case where such assignment is to a Seller Affiliate and prior written notice has been given to the Buyer. Parties agree that in case of assignment of this Agreement to a third party and/or Seller Affiliate, Seller will be released from any contractual obligations under this Agreement.

19. Seller informs Buyer that any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ("individual"), in particular business contact details of Buyer's personnel and contractors, which is communicated by or on behalf of Buyer to Seller ("personal data"), will be subject to data processing by Seller. To learn more about the processing of personal data and about individual's rights in relation to the processing, read the Seller's data privacy notice at <https://www.exxonmobil.be/en-BE/Company/Locations/Belgium/About-ExxonMobil-Petroleum-and-Chemical-BV>. Buyer shall inform its personnel and contractors and other relevant individuals of the Seller's data privacy notice.

20. The Parties agree to comply with all laws and lawful regulations applicable to this Agreement or to the Parties (including competition laws and trade laws, such as those imposing trade sanctions on countries, individuals, or entities and/or regulating the direct or indirect sale, supply, export, re-export, transit, import, transfer, or end use of goods, software, or technology).

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement or any other document, neither this Agreement nor any other document shall require the Parties to take or refrain from taking any action, or to furnish any information prohibited or penalized under the sanctions, export control or anti-boycott laws and regulations of the United States, the European Union, any EU member state, the United Kingdom and/or Norway as applicable.

The Parties acknowledge that the Product provided by Seller or its Affiliates to Buyer or its Affiliates under this Agreement, may be subject to laws or regulations restricting their direct or indirect sale, supply, export, re-export, transit, transfer or release to certain governments, legal entities or individuals and/or to certain destinations. Buyer represents and warrants that it will not directly or indirectly sell or export Product to (or for use in) the Russian Federation, Belarus or other countries, persons or entities that are subject to sanctions or export controls applicable to the Product provided under this Agreement. Further, to the extent that Buyer sells or otherwise transfers the Product to a third party, Buyer agrees to take appropriate measures, including due diligence on the Product's ultimate end use and location of end use, to ensure that such third parties do not export to a country, person, or entity to which Buyer itself has agreed not to export pursuant to the above. The Parties will comply with all applicable EU and U.S. requirements expressed in (i) local and E.U. regulations, (ii) the U.S. Export Administration Regulations and/or in (iii) prohibitions on transactions with or transfers to the governments of, Parties located in or operated from, or nationals of countries subject to local, E.U. and/or U.S. economic sanctions and prohibitions on transactions with or transfers to entities or individuals. Buyer shall immediately inform Seller about any problems in applying the preceding paragraphs. Buyer shall make available to Seller information concerning compliance with the obligations under such paragraphs within 2 weeks of the simple request of such information. The Parties represent, warrant and undertake to each other with respect to this Agreement that they shall comply with all applicable anti-bribery and anti-money laundering laws, rules, and regulations of any government, including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the U.K. Bribery Act, 2010, any applicable country legislation implementing the OECD Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions as such laws and regulations may be amended or updated from time to time. In particular, each Party represents and warrants to the other that with respect to this Agreement it has not made and will not make any payments or given anything of value to officials, officers or employees of the government of the country in which the Product to be sold and purchased under this Agreement originated or was delivered, or to any agency, department or instrumentality of such government, or to any other person which would violate the above-referenced laws and regulations.

21. To the extent permitted by law, in the event that a Party becomes aware that it will or may undergo a Change of Control ("Affected Party") within the following three (3) Months, the Affected Party will notify the other Party without delay after it becomes so aware. Together with such notification, the Affected Party will supply the other Party with sufficient information to allow that other Party to reasonably assess the impact that such Change of Control may have on it and/or its Affiliates, on the Affected Party's creditworthiness, and on the Affected Party's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

In the event that such Change of Control, if it is implemented:

(a) may result in the other Party and/or its Affiliates being subjected to any fact, matter, event, circumstance, condition or change which materially and adversely affects, or could reasonably be expected to materially and adversely affect, individually or in aggregate, the business, operations, assets, liabilities, condition (whether financial, trading or otherwise), prospects or operating results of it and/or its Affiliates;

(b) may reduce the Affected Party's creditworthiness; and/or

(c) may negatively affect the Affected Party's ability to perform its obligations under the Agreement;

then the other Party may (but is not obliged to) terminate this Agreement forthwith upon notice to the Affected Party without the need to proceed to Court. Such termination is without prejudice to the rights and obligations of the Parties that have accrued up to and including the date of termination.

As used above, "Change of Control" means any of the following: (i) any transaction, or series of transactions, that would result in the transfer of at least fifty percent (50%) of the equity interest in a Party (or of at least fifty percent (50%) of the equity interest in any business entity that owns or controls, directly or indirectly, at least fifty percent (50%) of the equity interest in a Party ("Party's Parent")) to a single transferee or multiple transferees under common control; (ii) any transaction that would result in a Party's (or Party's Parent's) merging with one or more other entities.

22 The provisions of this Agreement are severable. Should any provision hereof be invalid or unenforceable, it will automatically be deemed omitted from this Agreement, without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permitted by law. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable but would be valid and enforceable if some part thereof were deleted, or its period or scope of application reduced, such deletion or reduction shall automatically apply insofar as may be necessary to make the provision valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

23. The Parties agree that they will maintain the terms and conditions of this Agreement, its possible Amendments and any notices herein confidential towards third parties (other than their Affiliates), save to the extent disclosure is required by law or to enforce or implement the Agreement.

24.a. This Agreement between Seller and Buyer shall be governed by the laws of Belgium (excluding its rules on conflict of laws). Neither the Uniform Law on the International Sale of Goods ("ULIS"), nor the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods 1980 ("CISG") shall apply.

24.b.(i) If Buyer's registered office is located either (a) within the territory of the European Economic Area ("EEA") or (b) in a country that is not a party to the 1958 Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards ("The New York Convention"), any disputes between Seller and Buyer arising out of or in relation to this Agreement shall be of the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Antwerp

24.b.(ii) If Buyer's registered office is located in a country that is party to the 1958 Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards ("The New York Convention"), any disputes arising out of or in relation to this Agreement shall be finally settled under the CEPANI Rules of Arbitration. There shall be three (3) arbitrators appointed in accordance with said Rules. Any disputes related to claims with a principal balance not exceeding the amount of EUR 500,000.00 under this Agreement shall be finally settled by one arbitrator and the expedited procedure of the CEPANI Rules of Arbitration shall apply. The seat of the arbitration shall be Brussels. The arbitration shall be conducted in the English language.

24.c. In the event of disputes involving multiple Buyers in scope of both 24.b.(i.) and 24.b.(ii.), such disputes shall be of the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Antwerp.
